Judge Kilgore/Joe McKeever 2 Good Ones

I am truly looking forward to our next two B.A.L.L. programs. This month with my friend Joey Kilgore and then October with cartoonist and author Joe McKeever. Both of these programs will be top notch experiences in the life of our church.

Joseph Kilgore is a judge for the Sixth Chancery District (Seat 1) of Mississippi, which includes Attala, Carroll, Choctaw, Kemper, Neshoba and Winston counties. He was appointed to the bench in July 2010 by Governor Haley Barbour later to be elected to a full term the following November. He was re-elected on November 4, 2014, for a term that expires in 2018. Judge Kilgore is not only a fair and honest court official but also a very faithful member of FBC.

Joe McKeever is an active retired cartoonist and author. He draws a daily cartoon for the Baptist Press (www.bpnews.net/cartoons), writes a series on “My Favorite Deacon” for Lifeway’s Deacon Magazine, and blogs daily for church leaders at www.joemckeever.com. He has also published a number of books, including several volumes of cartoons, and the very widely used “Help! I’m a Deacon”. We want to give both of these men warm welcomes to our group. So please mark your calendars and make every effort to attend. You may even choose to bring a friend.
